

SAN JOSE MULTICULTURAL ARTISTS GUILD presents

21 st. Annual 2018

Día de los Muertos Procession & Festival Sunday, October 21, 2018 Downtown San Jose | 11 am-4 pm

Join us for this free family friendly celebration honouring the true spirit of this Mexican holiday. Don't miss out on lively traditional performances from local cultural groups, colorful and elaborate ofrendas (altars), Day of the Dead inspired activities for the kids and unique crafts.

The procession gathers at 11AM and starts at 12 noon at City View Plaza across the street from the César Chávez Park on Market St. and ends at the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Library, corner of San Fernando and 4th.

For more information call 408-272-9924 or visit our website: www.sjmag.org

OTHER DAY OF THE DEAD COMMUNITY EVENTS

October 1 – 31

La Placita

La Placita in the Tropicana Shopping Center welcomes copies of pictures, flowers and written dedications for their community altar displays. Cannot be responsible for lost or stolen items. 1690 Story Road, #108, San Jose.

October 8 – November 2

San Jose Multicultural Artists Guild

Tour of the 12th Annual Art of Remembrance Altar and Visual Art Exhibit at San Jose State University. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Library, 150 E. San Fernando Street, San Jose. An exhibit of traditional and contemporary altars and visual art by local artists, 5th Floor. Children's altar on the 1st floor. www.sjmag.org

October 11 • Thursday • 6:30 PM – 9:00 PM

San Jose Multicultural Artists Guild

12th Annual Art of Remembrance: Opening Reception & Artists Talk, 5th floor. MLK Library. SJSU, 150 E. San Fernando Street, San Jose. www.sjmag.org

October 11 - 28

School of Arts and Culture @MHP

Altar Exhibit: Open Mon – Fri for viewing. Featuring altars by local contemporary and traditional artists. School of Arts and Culture @ MHP, 1700 Alum Rock Avenue, San Jose. www.schoolofartsandculture.org

October 11 – 21

Teatro Visión presents DePARTera
School of Arts and Culture Theatre

Inspired by real stories gathered from our community, DePARTera is a witty, modern take on Día de los Muertos. With inspiring music, touching stories, and diverse characters. 1700 Alum Rock Avenue, San Jose. www.teatrovision.org/departera

October 19 • Friday • 7:00 PM

Música con los Muertos • Santa Clara Mission

Drawing inspiration from the Mexican holiday Día de los Muertos, the Chorale will connect with and remember our ancestors through music from a diversity of cultures and traditions. www.scc.org

October 24 • Wednesday • 6 PM

39th Festival de la Vida • Free

Oaxaca dinner and Circle of Remembrance followed by the 39th Annual Festival de la Vida with Folklórico Nacional Mexicano, mariachis, cantantes, spoken Calaveras. Bring photos for the ofrenda. Gardner Community Center, 520 W Virginia St, San Jose. ldyllrich@gmail.com.

October 27 • Saturday • 11 AM – 4 PM

Calvary Catholic Cemetery

9th Annual Día de los Muertos 2018

Ritual, music, dance, face painting, children's crafts, food and art. 2650 Madden Ave., San Jose. ddlm@dsj.org or 408-258-2940.

October 27 • Saturday • 12 noon – 8 PM

October 28 • Sunday • 12 noon – 8 PM

La Ultima Parada

A celebration of life on the Day of the Dead

A showcase of the vibrancy of Día de Los Muertos and Mexican culture through a collection of cultural festivities, dances, and musical performances. The School of Arts & Culture at the Mexican Heritage Plaza, 1700 Alum Rock Avenue, San Jose. www.laultimaparada.org

November 2 • Friday • 4:00 PM – 10:00 PM

Calpulli Tonalehqueh of San Jose

15th Annual Día de los Muertos Ceremony. Over 100 Aztec dancers, arts and crafts and activities for children. Please wear your Muertos costumes. School of Arts and Culture at the Mexican Heritage Plaza, 1700 Alum Rock Avenue, San Jose. <https://m.facebook.com/CalpulliTonalehqueh>

November 3 • Saturday • 11 AM – 5PM

Community Day:

El Día de los Muertos • San Jose Museum of Art

Celebrate El Día de Los Muertos with a full day of live entertainment, cultural demonstrations, and an eclectic mix of artmaking. Free. www.sanjosemuseumofart.org

November 3 • Saturday • Mass at 10:30 AM

All Saints Day & Day of the Dead

Oak Hill Funeral Home & Memorial Park

After a memorial service to honor the dearly departed, sweet bread, coffee and champurrado will be served. Live music will be played and a ceremonial dance will be performed in celebration of Día de los Muertos. Shuttles will be provided. , 408-297-2447

November 4 • Sunday • Noon – 4:00 PM

Children's Discovery Museum

Día de los Muertos Celebration featuring a community altar, skull making, special activities, performances and more. www.cdm.org